

Brent Atkins

Brent is a Senior Vice President of Growth at Progyny. Brent leads a sales team who work with employers and consultants to develop custom fertility and family building solutions, with a focus on growth in the eastern half of the US. Brent also has responsibility for managing key channel partner relationships for Progyny in the consultant and PBM space. Recently Brent has assumed responsibility for the growth of Progyny Canada.

Prior to joining Progyny seven years ago, Brent had over two decades of experience working with national insurance carriers in sales, service, and leadership roles with both the mid-sized and national account customers.

Brent is a graduate of Providence College.