

Jameson Fauver
Vice President of Business Development
M: 860.307.9939
E: jameson@kashable.com

Jameson joined Kashable in 2014 as the first employee, teaming up with co-founders Einat Steklov and Rishi Kumar, to help introduce Kashable to the benefits ecosystem. Today, Jameson leads the sales and partnerships teams at Kashable and has helped onboard Kashable's financial wellness program at 250+ employer clients covering 3.5 million+ employees. Through Kashable, Jameson is on a mission to drive social and financial impact in the lives of Working America.

Prior to Kashable, Jameson worked at Sun Life Financial in New York, partnering with benefits consultants and large employers to create ancillary employee benefits packages. Jameson is a graduate of Colgate University, where he majored in Economics and minored in Spanish. He was also a 4 year member of the Division-1 soccer team. Currently, Jameson lives in Boston with his wife and two young daughters. Jameson enjoys the outdoors as much as possible, running, golfing, or skiing. Since 2012, Jameson has served as a Director for Camp Pemigewassett, a boys summer camp in New Hampshire, where he is a member of the Recruiting and Finance Committees.
