

Jannine Versi
Co-founder & COO
Elektra

Jannine has spent her career in healthcare, tech, and government, including roles at Google, in the Obama Administration, and White House. She was on the founding team of Cityblock Health and was an early hire at Valera Health. She's an alumna of the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard Business School and was a Fulbright Scholar and a Blavatnik Fellow at HBS. In her spare time, she can be found researching new restaurants to try in the neighborhood or hanging out with her husband, twin son and daughter, and extended family.

Program overview: Elektra Health is a virtual platform that can help empower women navigating their menopause journey. It includes tailored, evidence-based education, a private community, and 1:1 guided support. Members are eligible to join this program if they are on a fully insured commercial plan through their employer. Elektra Health - Smashing The Menopause Taboo, Together
