

Sarah Quick

Sarah is a Senior Benefits Consultant at Liberty Mutual, with seven years of experience in benefits programs and vendor management. Sarah's experience focuses on Health and Insurance benefits, including program management, resolving employee escalations, and identifying opportunities to improve the employee experience. Sarah is inspired by the challenge of adapting a benefits program to meet the needs of a diverse employee population. Sarah earned an MBA from Boston University's Questrom School of Business as well as her bachelor's degree in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University. She currently lives just outside of Boston, Ma with her partner and enjoys reading and baking in her free time.